

VANCOUVER ARTS CENTRE & MARY THOMSON HOUSE

ARTIST STUDIO APPLICATION

The Vancouver Arts Centre (VAC) is a heritage building housed in the former Albany Cottage Hospital, which was built in 1887. Run by the City of Albany for over 20 years, the VAC is now a vibrant community arts centre, gallery, and home to many local arts and crafts groups.

Situated on the same site as the VAC is Mary Thomson House (MTH), the former Nurses Quarters which is named after Mary Thomson, the driving force behind the beginning of the Albany Summer School and the Albany Arts Council. Along with studio spaces, MTH also includes a fully self-contained cottage, which becomes home to artists participating in the artist in residence program.

The VAC and MTH have 10 artist studios available for hire to the local arts community. Studios are provided to enable artists the opportunity to develop their artistic practice and professional career in a secure and stable environment. The VAC supports artists at any stage of their career and encourages an intergenerational mix of applications.

Preference for studio 4 will be given to an emerging artist aged 18-25.

STUDIO DETAILS

- Studio hire is available for a 1 or 2 year period (Please speak to VAC staff regarding any short-term hire enquiries)
- There are a range of sizes for the studios.
- Studios are encouraged to use their studio for a minimum of 25 hours a week.
- Artists are provided with a key and granted 24/7 access to their studio.
- Studios are to be used as a creative workspace and not a commercial site or residence.
- Studio rent is due quarterly in advance and is payable directly to the City of Albany. Hire Costs include electricity costs (to a maximum of $100 per annum) and access to Wi-Fi.
- Cleaning of the studios is to be managed by the Hirer. Studios must be cleaned and returned to their original state at the end of the hire term.
- Insurance of personal property on the premises is the Hirer's responsibility.
- Artists are encouraged to attend the VAC user group meetings.
- Studios are not suitable for industrial or semi industrial processes.
- The use of solvents is strictly prohibited.
- Artists are expected to adhere to the City of Albany code of conduct.
- Artists are expected to adhere to the City of Albany's WHS and risk management protocols.
- Preference for Studio 4 will be given to an emerging artist aged 18 - 25.
- Preference for Studio 12 will be given to a not-for-profit community arts organisation or community organisation undertaking arts activities with a minority group.
- Preference will be given to artists who have not previously hired a studio space at the VAC.

ACCESSIBILITY

ACROD parking is available near the main entrance of the Vancouver Arts Centre to the west of the main building with wheelchair access to the main building available via the front door. A loading zone is available at the front of the Centre to assist with the transportation of heavy equipment.

SHARED FACILITIES

Studio Artists are welcome to use the shared facilities at either the Vancouver Arts Centre or Mary Thomson House (depending on their studio location) during their hire. The shared facilities include a kitchen containing a fridge / freezer, sink and an urn or kettle. Bathrooms at the Vancouver Arts Centre have accessible toilets and a baby changing table is also available in the ladies bathroom. Two toilets are available within Mary Thomson House.

The enclosed verandah at Mary Thomson House is available for artists to use and is considered a common area. Informal social occasions for studio artists in common lounge and enclosed verandah may only occur with the agreement of all studio artists at Mary Thomson House.

Communal areas and shared facilities must be maintained and cleaned after use. Cleaners only service this area twice monthly.

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE PROGRAM

The Mary Thomson House Cottage and Studio 1 located in the VAC building are used to support the City of Albany Artist in Residence program. Resident artists have the option to apply for a two to six-week residency. When the Cottage is not facilitating a resident artist, it is available for hire on a weekly basis to support other arts programs and artists. Studio 1 in the VAC is retained as a dedicated residency studio space and is unavailable for hire.

PUBLIC LIABILITY INSURANCE

All studio hirers will be required to provide a public liability insurance Certificate of Currency.
